ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

STATE AUDITOR

FOR THE

FISCAL YEAR ENDING NOVEMBER 30, 1896.

RALEIGH, N. C., January 1, 1897.

SIR:

I have the honor to submit the annual report of this Department for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1896.

ASSESSMENT AND TAXATION.

According to returns made to this Department by the Assessors for 1894, the aggregate value of real and personal property, including railroads, steamboats and telegraph, was $259,564,449.99. The assessment for 1895, the year covered by this report, was $257,437,227.99, a decrease of $2 127,222. There was a decrease on properties other than railroad, steamboat and telegraph of $3,618,-770.00, but an increase on the latter properties of $1,491,548.00, leaving the net decrease as above stated. Statements elsewhere given will show more specifically the gains and losses of the respective subjects.

The rate of taxation on each $100.00 of value was as follows:

For General State Purposes	21⅞ cents
For Public Schools	18 cents
For Pensions	3½ cents
Total levy by the State	43 cents

(On the present valuation one cent of tax on the $100 of value raises about $25,000 of revenue.)

The gross amount of revenue derived by the above levy, for State purposes, public schools and pensions, was $1,414,217.77. There was also derived, under Schedules "B" and "C," known as privilege taxes, $89,186.21, making the total from all sources $1,503,403.98.

There was a decrease in the revenues for general State purposes, compared with the fiscal year 1894, of $15,656.68. This is attributable to the decrease in taxable values, above related, and a reduction in the levy made by the Legislature of 1895 of one-third of a cent on the $100 of value. There was an increase in the levy from 16 cents to 18 cents for the public schools, which, notwithstanding the decrease in taxable values, resulted in an increase of the school fund $48,947.92. There was also an increase in the revenues from the poll tax for school purposes of $33,120.38, making the total increase for public schools $82,068.30, and the whole revenue for school purposes $847,578.57.

Statement "G" (page 183) shows the total receipts of the public fund, payable into the public treasury, to have been $1,259,458.40. Statement "H" shows the total disbursements from said fund to have been $1,244,917.57, an excess of receipts over disbursements for the year of $14,540.83. I refer specially to these two statements for details of receipts and disbursements.

The counties, almost without exception, levy up to the constitutional limitation, and, besides, levy taxes for special county purposes. As county expenses increase the limitation fixed by the Constitution for general State and county purposes must be supplemented by special levy. The limitation for general purposes being 66⅔ cents on each $100.00 of value, and the levy made by the State for State, schools and pensions being 43 cents, leaves only 23⅔ cents for the counties for general county purposes. There has been a decrease in the total levies for general county purposes, compared with 1894, of $36,340.70; but there has been an increase in the county special levies of $63,899.89.

The following shows the appraisement for taxation of all properties for the years 1891 to 1895, inclusive, classified:

ON LANDS.

$409.458.57	$345,558.76	$286,079.66	$326,030.76	$361,050.74

Gross amount of State, $1,503,433.98 ; county, $1,066,-926.99 ; total for the year, $2,570,360.97. The population being 1,760,000, this shows a per capita tax of $1.46 for all purposes for which taxes are levied. Compared with the returns of 1894 there was a decrease on

Lands (outside of town lots)	$ 4,412.870
Horses	547,361
Mules	636,761
Jacks and Jennies	3,602
Goats	1,308
Cattle	119,662

Hogs	43,850
Sheep	18,227
Total Decrease	$ 5,783,641

There was an increase on

Town Lots	$ 160,390
Farming Utensils	279,080
Money on Hand	559,035
Solvent Credits	55,324
Stock in Incorporated Companies	460,806
All Other Personal Property	650,236
Total Increase	$ 2,164,871
Net Decrease	3,618,770

The following shows the average value as per assessment of lands per acre and stock per head in the State for 1891 to 1895, inclusive:

	1895.	1894.	1893.	1892.	1891.
Lands per acre	$ 3.94	$4.16	$ 4.16	$ 4.02	$ 4.22

Sheep per head	.96	.96	1.00	1.01	1.02

DISTRIBUTION OF TAXATION.

A statement as to the distribution of taxation relating to subjects and individual taxpayers may be interesting. Of the $1,036,201.96 gross revenues derived from all the real and personal property of the State, there was of ad valorem taxes:

On lands (outside of town lots).....$239,781.65, or 23.14 per cent. of the whole.
On town lots.....$93,528.78, or 9 per cent. of the whole.
On railroads.....$111,624.46, or 10.80 per cent. of the whole.
On all personal property.....$591,267.07, or 57.06 per cent. of the whole.

Outside of railroad, steamboat and telegraph properties, the distribution among individual taxpayers of the above subjects is suggestive. Taking Wake county as an example—and it is above the average in assessment of values—the average value of land per acre being $6.69, while the average for the State is only $3.94—the distribution of property is remarkable. Over sixty per cent. of the individual taxpayers of the county (as carefully verified by the tax-lists in the office of the Register of Deeds) pay taxes on real and personal property of less than $500 assessed value. To give the figures exactly, there are 6,484 taxpayers in the county who pay on less than $500 of real and personal property; 1,521 who pay on $500 and less than $1,000; 1,564 who pay on $1,000 and less than $5,000; 221 who pay on $5,000 and less than $10,000; 130 who pay on $10,000 and above. Total number of taxpayers in the county, including the city and the towns, 9,920. Of these 1,535 of the first named, 418 of the second, 579 of the third, 144 of the fourth, and 114 of the last reside in Raleigh township, which includes much property outside the city limits, making 2,790 of all the taxpayers of the county residing in Raleigh township. Upon comparing the several counties with Wake, a most reasonable estimate for the State shows that fully eighty per cent. of the individual taxpayers pay on property, real and personal, for all purposes—State, county, schools, public debt, etc.—valued at $500 or less. The levy made by the State on real and personal property for all purposes is 43 cents; by the county for general county purposes, $23\frac{2}{3}$ cents, making the $66\frac{2}{3}$ cents allowed by the Constitution. It must be agreeable to at least eighty per cent. of the taxpayers to know that the entire cost to them individually of supporting their State and county government—every cent they pay on property, real and personal, incident to such expenses—is only $3.33\frac{1}{3}$ cents or less. No higher tribute can be paid to the honesty and economy with which the public affairs of the people have been administered in the past.

SCHEDULES "B" AND "C" TAXES.

There has been some increase in this class of taxes—known as privilege tax—mostly from the tax levied by the last Legislature upon doctors, lawyers, dentists, hotels and boarding-houses, and corporations other than railroad or banking. This increase, as compared with 1894, was $33,731.94. Of this sum $2,568.99 were derived from hotels and boarding-houses, $18,790 from doctors, lawyers and dentists, and $5,910 from corporations above specified. It will be interesting to the people to know there are only 5,136 "bedrooms" in the entire State kept for "boarders," "transient or permanent;" it ought to be some comfort, however, to learn, as the tax returns show, there are only 1,879 doctors, lawyers and dentists in all the State.

The decrease in the "gross incomes and profits" is fortunately only $15,663, but it is to be regretted that the total amount of gross incomes and profits only reaches $550,893 from all sources and on "property not otherwise taxed."

The "merchants purchase tax" increased $2,948,81, from $17,246,26 in 1894 to $19,195.07 in 1895. The tax on "dealers in liquors—first class," increased $2,083.05, from $4,776.11 to $6,859.16. On "dealers in liquors, second class," increased $297.25, from $1,302.75 to $1,600.00.

In the last report of this Department I suggested to the collectors of taxes the importance of giving more careful attention to the taxes imposed in these schedules, specially Schedule "B." I am satisfied these taxes are not looked after, in too many instances, as they should be. Sheriffs are humane people generally, and of most kindly disposition. Their sympathies are easily aroused, and their feelings ofttimes get the better of the revenue laws made and provided. But of all subjects, next to the country doctor, which the lawgivers have solemnly said must and shall pay tribute unto Cæsar for exhibiting within the jurisdiction of this Commonwealth, that which stirs the bowels of compassion of the tax-collector from centre to circumference, appeals to the sensibilities of the grave and reverend county commissioners and the freedom-loving county attorneys, the circus heads the list. It is the "song that reaches the heart." Notwithstanding the revenue act says a tax of $100 "shall be" collected from each circus or menageric for the State, and the same amount "shall be" collected for county purposes, for each day's performance, a plea of impecuniosity by the circus manager, the roaring of the lion and the mourning of the whangdoodle within the spreading canvas, the assembled multitude all expectant, have in several instances proven too much for the tax gatherer, and less than the sum nominated in the bond has been collected. I respectfully suggest that some method be devised by which county authorities can be impressed with the importance of, first, reading carefully the revenue act, specially Schedule "B," then inwardly digesting it, then prayerfully but firmly enforcing it. The State Treasury will, I am sure, be much the gainer thereby.

WHITE AND COLORED TAXPAYERS.

According to the U. S. Census for 1890, the population of the State was divided between the races as follows: Whites, 1,055,382; colored, 561,018. From the same source we learn there were 233,307 whites 21 years of age and over, and 109,346 colored, 21 years of age and over, a total of 342,653 of both races who were above 21 years of age. The following statement will show the number of persons listed for poll-tax, between the ages of 21 and 50 years, of each race, from 1890 to 1895 inclusive:

	WHITES.	COLORED.
1890	153,486	60,832
1891	158,447	63,083
1892	160,441	63,236
1893	164,544	62,940
1894	167,300	63,931
1895	171,915	65,697

Estimating the population now, observing the percentage of increase during the decade from 1880 to 1890, to be a little over 1,750,000, the increase of persons 21 years of age and over would add 32,500 to the total above said age. To divide this between the races according to the above ratio would add 20,000 to the white and 12,500 to the colored, making a total for 1895 of 253,307 white males and 121,846 colored males 21 years of age and over. Of the 253,307 white males, 171,915, or a fraction over two-thirds, paid a poll-tax; and of the 121,846 colored males, 65,697, or a little over one-half, paid a poll tax, leaving 137,541 males of both races who escape poll-tax by reason of being over 50 years of age, and insolvency or infirmity, the only legal causes of exemption, or otherwise. Considering, as elsewhere stated, that at least eighty per cent. of the indivdual taxpayers pay taxes on real and personal property valued at less than $500, and less than two-thirds of the male persons over 21 years of age pay a poll-tax, it would suggest that the burden of supporting the State and county governments, as administered for the past two decades, bears lightly upon a very large majority of the people.

The following statement shows the relative amount of tax paid on property for the public schools by the two races, the same ratio obtaining for all other purposes:

	WHITES.	COLORED.
1890	$283,953.31	$ 8,735.34
1891	364,012.34	12,373.35
1892	354,211.57	12,275.62
1893	378,248.24	13,071.35
1894	363,158.68	12,861.92
1895	402,829.65	14,748.88

The above shows that the percentage of tax on real and personal property, other than railroads, steamboats, telegraph, stocks, or privilege taxes, paid for the public schools by whites, is 96.34 and by colored is 3.66.

PENSIONS.

There was an increase during the year of those entitled to pensions under the law, of 198, distributed as follows: First class, 28; fourth class (soldiers), 170. There was a decrease as follows: In second class, 7; third class, 3; fourth class (widows), 8; total, 18: making a net increase of 180.

Total number of pensioners, 5,324, classified as follows: First class, 130; second class, 240; third class, 352; fourth class (soldiers), 1,844; fourth class (widows), 2,758.

The amount paid to each class, viz., $64, $48, $32 and $16, respectively. Total amount paid on account of the above, $104,736.

I renew my suggestion, made in a former report, of an increase in the pension tax sufficient to pay to these worthy soldiers, and the widows of worthy soldiers, the full amount contemplated by law. A small addition to the present levy would do so. It is a tax willingly borne by the people. To make the pension tax on property five cents on the $100 of value, and fifteen cents on the poll, would derive a fund sufficient to pay to each soldier and widow on the roll the full amount contemplated by law, viz., $100 to the first class, $75 to the second, $50 to the third, and $25 to the fourth. When we know that 80 per cent. of the individual taxpayers who pay a property tax pay on less than $500 each, the total additional tax on each of four-fifths of the individual taxpayers would be $8\frac{1}{3}$ cents or less on all his property, increasing his total pension tax from $16\frac{2}{3}$ cents at the present levy to 25 cents, provided he pays on the full $500 of property. The poll-tax would be increased from 10 cents to 15. It does seem to me there cannot be a taxpayer in the State who would object to paying this small pittance toward giving some comfort, and in too many instances, unfortunately, absolute necessaries, to those who, in addition to advancing age, suffer bodily infirmities by reason of wounds received.

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS.

With a commendable view of encouraging such institutions in this State, the Legislature of 1895 passed an Act which, while strict in its requirements of solvency and honest management, was liberal in its provisions as to rates charged for the accommodations afforded. Such organizations have done and are doing great good by assisting a class, always the largest in any community, and specially deserving of favorable consideration, who are unable to obtain such assistance from any other source. By the weekly contributions of the members of such an association a sum is secured sufficient to enable one or more of the members to buy or build a comfortable home, thus making him a property holder and taxpayer and enlarging his interest in his community and society. In addition to his weekly or monthly payment on his stock, interest on the sum borrowed is added to each payment; and thus, by the time his stock has matured, the debt on his home is paid, all at a cost to him of about what he had paid per month for rent of a less comfortable home, sometimes less. From no other source could money be obtained on such terms of payment and cost to the borrower. It is true that certain expenses incident to the loan make it cost the borrower a very small per cent. per annum above the legal rate of interest. This additional per cent. he was and is willing to pay, could and can afford to pay, and yet receive benefits nowhere else to be obtained. This additional percentage of cost would make the full interest per annum something less than 9 per cent., though securing to the company or association a fraction only more than 6 per centum. The usual range of profit to the associations throughout the United States is a fraction less than 7 per cent. But our Supreme Court has decided that any charge, by any method which increases the cost of a loan above 6 per cent. is unlawful. On account of this a number of associations have ceased to do business. The destructive effect of this decision can be understood when it is known that stock in such companies, to make them useful, must be held largely by persons as an investment, and not for the purpose of becoming borrowers. If every shareholder should wish to borrow, and become such shareholder only with a view to borrowing, the competition for the loan, and the disappointment which would necessarily follow to many, would naturally lead to contention and despair. If all expenses incident to the conduct of such an institution, the making of loans, etc., must be deducted from the 6 per cent. on the investment, there can be no inducement to merely investors taking stock therein. I refer to this matter at length, hoping that some way may be devised by which such associations may be encouraged in this State and their great usefulness enlarged. In such piping times of "overflowing prosperity" as our people are now enjoying, brought about very largely by the energetic efforts of capital to find a way not to give itself to the poor in the usual channels of enterprise, or lend itself except on such treasures as collateral as are not laid up in heaven, it may be well to allow to those who wish to gather themselves together for mutual help some latitude not granted to others who strive only to lay up treasures in this world.

I ask attention to Statement No. 9 of this Report, which gives the name and number of such associations licensed to do business in this State for the past year, with a statement of the business done by each in this State during that period. This latter statement shows there were 1,251 loans made in this State during the year, amounting to $440,373.44. These loans are in comparatively small sums, to aid persons in buying or building homes, and this amount, not to be obtained from any other source upon such terms of payment, has added thus much to the taxable values of the State, which otherwise would not have been done. These institutions are therefore worthy of encouragement rather than restraint.

OFFICIAL BONDS.

The General Assembly of 1895 passed an act (Chapter 270, Laws of 1895), permitting various county officers to file bonds guaranteed by "any Insurance or Surety Company as security thereto," etc. By virtue of this act a large number of the bonds of sheriffs, clerks of the Superior Courts and Registers of Deeds, copies of which are required to be deposited in this office, have been guaranteed by such companies. The Legislature of 1893 passed an act (Chap. 300, Laws of 1893) requiring such surety Companies, before doing business in this State, to deposit with the State Treasnrer bonds or other securities, to be approved by said Treasurer, of the valne of at least ten thousand dollars, etc., besides complying, in other respects, with the insurance laws of this State. The Legislature of 1895, however, passed an act (Chap. 329, Private Laws 1895) repealing the act (Chap. 300, Laws of 1893) above referred to, so far as relates to the deposit of the ten thousand dollars with the Treasurer. It occurs to me, in view of the very general and largely increased use of such companies in guaranteeing the bonds of such officers, it would be well to have something within the jurisdiction of this State besides an agent upon whom process could be served, in case it should become necessary, as it has on several occasions, to take judgment for default on the part of officers. When it is remembered that the bonds or obligations to be secured, not only by sheriffs, tax-collectors, clerks of courts, and Registers of Deeds, but "Treasurers, Constables, Coroners, Mayors, clerks, policemen, weighers or standard keepers of any county, town or township, or any trustee, receiver, guardian, administrator, executor, assignee, or any other fiduciary and party to a civil action or proceeding, either for the prosecution thereof or any other purpose whatsoever in the course of the action, or by any officer in any town or city," the enormous extent to which this business may be carried can be imagined. While not questioning the integrity of any company now allowed to do business in this State either for solvency or promptness in meeting obligations which may be incurred, trouble, if not vexatious delay in enforcing a judgment, could well occur, when all the assets of the corporation involved would be beyond the jurisdiction of this State. I respectfully ask attention to this matter.

REPORT OF AMOUNT OF STOCKS HELD IN COUNTIES.

There are certain corporations in this State, including banking, which pay license tax to the State Treasurer, measured by the capital stock of the corporation. All owners of stock in these corporations, residents of the State, are also required to list their stock in the county in which the owner resides, to be taxed for school and county purposes, under the head of "Stock in Incorporated Companies." Observation suggests to me that it would be wise to require, by a provision in the revenue law, the proper officer of such institutions or corporations to report to the Auditor, on blanks to be furnished by him, the number of shares of stock and the value thereof held by residents of this State, designating the county in which the shareholder resides. The name of the stockholder need not be given, nor the number of shares held by any one individual; but the number held by individuals of a county, and the value thereof, should be reported. These reports should be made to the Auditor on or before the 1st day of November of each year, and show such number of shares so held on the 1st day of June previous.

THE OYSTER INTERESTS.

The oyster interest of the State should be a source of revenue to the State as well as to our fellow-citizens on the coast. It certainly is not to the State, and I have good reasons for believing it affords but little to the people immediately concerned. It has been a subject of legislation for years, with no satisfactory results. Legislation is evidently required now, but what that should be I confess my inability to suggest, even were it strictly my province to do so. I believe it would be the part of wisdom for the Legislature to appoint a commission of intelligent citizens to thoroughly investigate this interest, ascertain as far as may be its possibilities of development, and report to the next Legislature, recommending such action as will not only protect but develop this really great and important resource. It is too important to lie dormant, and should be made to contribute much more largely to the comfort of mankind, and to the State Treasury as well. In this connection, I beg leave to suggest to your Excellency one feature of this oyster business which can well be dispensed with. I refer to the Steamer "Lilly," which, for many moons, has been resting at anchor in the waters of Pamlico river, near Washington, the melancholy habitat of an ancient mariner of our oyster navy, who spends his time in drawing his monthly salary, having the vessel repaired at State expense, as the law and the condition of the vessel requires, and listening to the melodies and the murmurings of the sad sea waves. All the advantages accruing to the State in the ownership of this beautiful little sea-flower are poetic, all fancy, both as to cost of maintenance and any services she renders. A truthful history of this noted craft, written by Commodores Lucas, Mann and White, commandants in the order named, would be graphic if not gratifying, but I am sure the most conspicuous incidents in her career would be liberal quotations from the books of the State Treasurer. I suggest she be sold, and sold early. If allowed to remain as at present much longer, the good people of our beautiful seaport town, near which she rests so calmly, will wake up some fine morning to find her, like

> Many a gem of purest ray serene,
> Deep in the bosom of the old river buried.

The State should either sell or sail her. It is safest to sell.

CONCLUSION.

A careful study of this report must satisfy any one that the public affairs of the State have been economically administered. When we consider that, of the legitimate amount of revenue derived from all sources, $1,687,209.22, there was appropriated for public schools $847,578.57; for the several institutions, educational, charitable and pensions, supported or aided by the State, $491,278.30, leaving $348,352.35 for the support of all other departments, executive, legislative and judicial, interest on the 4 per cent. bonds, and the various expenses, contingent and specific, incident to the conduct of public affairs, the people should be satisfied that their government costs so little. We are the lowest taxed people of any State in the Union, and this report shows the taxes of the people have been not only honestly but judiciously and economically expended. This report also shows how very modest is the assessment of property in this State. I sincerely pray that the time is near at hand when our cattle upon a thousand hills, and thousands of cattle upon our hills, may be worth for taxation more than $8.39 each; that our 200 to 500 pound hogs, which sell on the market for 12½ to 15 cents per pound may be worth more than $1.37; that money on hand, stocks and solvent credits may amount to as much and be worth as much on the first of June as any other time of the year. And I as sincerely pray to Heaven that the public affairs of our splendid old State may be as economically administered in the future as in the past. This prayer to Heaven is reverentially but deliberately made.

I wish to express to you, Sir, my grateful acknowledgment for the uniform kindness you have ever shown me in all relations, personal and official. Likewise, to the other officers of the State with whom I have been associated. The burdens of the office have been greatly lightened by the generous aid and sympathy I have ever received.

It gives me sincere pleasure to testify to the fidelity and ability of Mr. T. Palmer Jerman, Jr., Chief Clerk, and Mr. Jno. J. Dunn, Pension Clerk, who have served the State and this Department so faithfully and efficiently the past four years. Their good works do live after them.

This is the last official report I am required to make.

In obedience to the dispensation of an inscrutable Providence, whose ways are past finding out, and the will of a majority of the people, I shall soon retire from this office, but with the knowledge and consolation that I have discharged its duties honestly, and, I trust, with a degree of intelligence reasonably satisfactory.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your Excellency's Obedient Servant,

ROBT. M. FURMAN, Auditor.

To Governor Elias Carr.
